

UNIFORMED SERVICES UNIVERSITY of the Health Sciences

Dr. Michael Johns, Board of Regents Member

Dr. Michael Johns is the chancellor of Emory University. Previously, Dr. Johns served Emory University as the chief executive officer of the Robert W. Woodruff Health Sciences Center, executive vice president for Health Affairs, chairman of the board of Emory Healthcare, and professor in the Department of Otolaryngology.

He received his Bachelor of Science in biology from Wayne State University in 1964 and his medical degree from the University of Michigan Medical School in 1969.

Dr. Johns is a member of the American Academy of Otolaryngology, the American Association for the Advancement of Science, the American Clinical and Climatological Association, the American College of Surgeons, the American Medical Association, and the Institute of Medicine.

He previously served as editor of the Archives of Otolaryngology and currently serves on the editorial board of the Journal of the American Medical Association. He is a past member of the Governing Board of the National Research Council, the Board of Governors of the Clinical Center of the National Institutes of Health (NIH), and the Advisory Council of the National Center for Research Resources at NIH.

Furthermore, Dr. Johns has served as both director and president of the American Board of Otolaryngology; chair of the Board of Directors of the Association of Academic Health Centers; and on the Council of Deans Administrative Board of the Association of American Medical Colleges (AAMC).

Dr. Johns has been a significant contributor to many of the leading organizations and policy groups in health care, including the Institute of Medicine, the AAMC, the Commonwealth Fund Task Force on Academic Health Centers, and the Association of Academic Health Centers.

Dr. Johns has authored 168 publications and delivered numerous professional international, national and regional presentations.