NOTES:

- ✓ An employee's failure to comply with these procedures may result in the pay pool manager issuing a written cancellation of the reconsideration request.
- ✓ If employee is making allegations that a performance rating was based on prohibited discrimination such as race, color, religion, sex, nation origin, age, physical or mental disability, or reprisal must be processed through Equal Employment Opportunity discrimination complaint procedures and not submitted to PPM.
- ✓ A bargaining unit employee may challenge a rating of record or job objective rating through the negotiated grievance procedure unless explicitly excluded from that process.
- ✓ If the final decision is to change the rating of record or job objective rating, the revised rating will take the place of the original one, and a revised performance appraisal will be prepared and entered into all appropriate records. A copy of the revised rating will be provided to the employee, the servicing Human Resources Office (HRO), and the rating official. Any personnel actions resulting from the previous record will be canceled and replaced with new actions. The revised rating of record will be retroactive to the effective date of the original rating of record.
- ✓ When calculating time limits – day of action or receipt of document is not counted. If last day is Saturday, Sunday, legal holiday or day on which the employee is not scheduled to work, the last day is moved to the next regularly scheduled work day.
