

The Annual Rhythm of University Life

University life is marked by several significant annual events that are important for all faculty. Some of these events are noted below. Additional detailed schedules can be found on the Faculty Senate link and individual department homepages.

JUNE: *Education Day – full day of Faculty Development activities

*New students arrive in the Graduate School of Nursing (GSN)

JULY: Military field training exercises, (KERKESHNER & BUSHMASTER) at Ft. Indiantown Gap, PA

AUG: New medical student presentation ceremony. Graduate students arrive and begin study

OCT: New Faculty Orientation Day – all faculty invited

DEC: Joint Service Graduate Medical Education Selection Board selects medical students for residency training programs

MAR: Annual Packard Lecture – endowed annual lecture

MAY: *Research Week – displays, presentations and recognition of USU research activities

*Graduation Awards ceremonies for the GSN, School of Medicine and Graduate School

*Graduation ceremony for the GSN, School of Medicine, and the Graduate School

