MEMORANDUM FOR BASIC LIFE SUPPORT TRAINING SITES
(ATTN: PROGRAM ADMINISTRATORS)

SUBJECT: New Basic Life Support Instructor (BLS) Course Examination

1. The American Heart Association recently provided a National ECC Training Memorandum, announcing its release of the new BLS Instructor Course examination. This tool is provided as a method for the evaluation of cognitive knowledge following the BLS Instructor Course or the Heartsaver Instructor Course. Refer to the ECC Training Memorandum for detailed instructions on administering the examination.
2. Enclosed is a CD that includes the ECC Training Memorandum, the new BLS Instructor Course examination, the current BLS Course examinations, and the updated MTN Administrative Handbook 2003. The information on this disk will replace any previous disks received by our office dated December 2002 through April 2003, concerning BLS. Any previous disks should be destroyed.
3. Thank you for attention concerning this important matter. In order maintain accountability please return the enclosed receipt of item form to our office using the postage paid envelope or fax back by commercial (301) 295-1717, DSN 295-1717.
