

Aug 27, 2009

0730-0800 Registration/Continental Breakfast

0800-0810 Welcome/Introductions:

Col (Ret) Mark Bowyer
Dr. Charles Rice, President USU
COL David Burris '82
COL (Ret). Norman Rich

0810 -0845 12th Annual William R. Drucker Distinguished Trauma Lecture

“Surgical Leadership, what does it mean?”

Dr. Peter Rhee '87
University of Arizona

0845-0855 Questions /Comments
Dr. William Drucker

0850-0925 7th Annual Martin Silverstein Distinguished Surgical Lecture

“Do we need Research and Education in Mass Casualty Management?”

Professor Sten Lenquist
Soderkoping, Sweden

0925-0935 Questions /Comments

0935 -0955 “Mass Casualty Incidents and the Surgeon- The Sago Mine Disaster”
Dr. Larry Roberts
Fredricksburg, VA

0955-1000 Questions /Comments

1000-1030 Break

ACS COT Military Region XIII
Resident's Paper Competition
10-Min presentation – 5 min Q & A

Basic Science

1030-1045 The impact of early versus delayed restoration of flow via temporary vascular shunting on circulating biomarkers of ischemia in a porcine model of hind limb vascular injury
Capt Gabriel Burkhardt

1045-1100 Adrenal Insufficiency May Predict Non-Responsiveness to Dobutamine Stress Test in Septic Shock
Capt Danielle Holt
Tripler Army Medical Center

Clinical Science

1100-1115 Incidence of PE in Patients with High Energy Extremity Wounds
Capt Suzanne Gillern

1115-1130 Thromboelastography & plasma cytokine levels after burn & trauma
Capt James Mace
Brooke Army Medical Center

1130-1145 Surgical response to multiple casualty events following single explosive events
Capt Heather Hancock

1145-1200 Group Photo In Auditorium

1210-1300 LUNCH

1300-1320 “Waging War- Medical Lessons”
COL Brian Eastridge

1320-1340 “What Our Heroes Have Taught Me”
CAPT James Dunne, NNMCM

1340-1400 “Update from the War “
Maj Joe DuBose

1400-1430 “Orthopedic Management of War Injuries
CMDR Patricia McKay

1430-1445 Break

1445-1500 Mild Traumatic Brain Injury
CMDR Carlos Rodriguez NNMCM

1500-1520 Penetrating Brain Injury
Lt Col Anne Rizzo – Inova Fairfax

1520-1550 Head injury from the perspective of a wounded warrior and his family
LTC Tim and Shannon Maxwell

1550-1620 Story of a Wounded Warrior
LCPL Derrick Sharpe

1620-1650 Wounded Warrior Panel
LTC & Mrs. Maxwell, LCPL Sharpe

1650-1700 Closing Remarks
Col (Ret) Mark Bowyer
COL David Burris

1800 Working Dinner – By Invitation

