

Bringing Home the Lessons of War

What Can the Current Military Experience Contribute to Civilian Trauma Care?

3rd Collaborative Meeting of the American Association for the Surgery of Trauma and the United States Military Surgeons

Registration @ Surgery.usuhs.mil

March 23-24, 2009

Bethesda, Maryland
UNIFORMED SERVICES UNIVERSITY
SANFORD AUDITORIUM

MARCH 23, 2009
SANFORD AUDITORIUM

- 0800-1200 29th Annual USU Surgical Associates Day
(separate Registration see surgery@usuhs.mil)
- 1200-1300 LUNCH & Registration for AAST/Military Meeting
- 1300-1305 Welcome: David Burris, Mark Bowyer, David Feliciano
- 1305-1335 Society, Systems, and Access 2009:
Impact of Trauma, War and Disaster
Ken Mattox
- Topic One:
Quality Care in a Discontinuous Environment: Implications for Civilian Trauma Care and Disaster Management.
Moderator: Mike Rotondo
Recorder: Col. Sid Brevard
- 1335-1730
- 1335-1400 The Military Theater Trauma System – Development, Maturation and Implications for Civilian Trauma and Disaster Management
LTC Henry Schiller
- 1400-1420 Military CCAT – application to Civilian world
Col Warren Dorlac
- 1420-1440 Maintaining Quality across the spectrum:Autonomous Controllers
Col Jay Johannigman
- 1440-1500 Patient tracking and oversight across the continuum: The Joint Trauma Theatre Registry
Col George Costanzo
- 1500-1520 Break
- 1520-1540 Applying the military experience to civilian disasters
Rick Frykberg
- 1540-1600 Perspective: What the civilian world should learn from current military trauma systems/care in Iraq
Peggy Knudson
- 1600-1620 Perspective: What the civilian world should learn from current military trauma systems/care in Afghanistan
John Fildes
- 1620-1730 Panel Discussion: All speakers from Afternoon session
- 1730-1830 Reception – Small Dining Room Uniformed Services University
- 1830-2030 Working Dinner
Dinner Speaker: Tale of a Wounded Warrior: What it's like to be on the receiving end of the system.

MARCH 24, 2009
SANFORD AUDITORIUM

- 0730-0800 Continental Breakfast
- Topic Two:
Damage Control Resuscitation Update
Moderator: Andrew Pietzman
Recorder: Lt Col. Anne Rizzo
- 0800-1000
- 0800-0830 Current applications of Damage Control Resuscitation in the Deployed Military setting: Challenges and Controversies
COL Lorne Blackbourne
- 0830-0900 Applying Damage Control Resuscitation to the Civilian World:
Challenges and Controversies
Gene Moore
- 0900-1000 Panel Discussion
- 1000-1030 Break
- Topic Three:
Aggressive Craniectomy & Damage Control Neurosurgery
Moderator: Col (ret) James Ecklund
Recorder: CAPT James Dunne
- 1030-1230
- 1030-1100 Aggressive craniectomy for devastating head injuries the military experience
COL Rocco Armonda
- 1100-1125 Aggressive craniectomy for devastating head injuries: Can / should the military experience be applied to the civilian setting?
Bizhan Aarabi
- 1125-1150 Damage Control Neurosurgery by non-neurosurgeons:
Can/should military experience be applied to civilian community?
LTC Hans Bakken
- 1150-1230 Panel Discussion
- 1230-1300 Summary and Closure